

Our Ten Years On The Front Lines Of The Good Food Revolution

It's been an incredible journey over the past ten years. When we first started out, we were just a small group of farmers and activists with a dream of creating a better food system. Today, we're a thriving cooperative with over 1,000 members and a mission to make good food accessible to everyone.

Along the way, we've faced our share of challenges. But we've never given up on our belief that everyone deserves to have access to healthy, affordable food. We've fought for policies that support local farmers and reduce food waste. We've educated consumers about the importance of eating local and supporting sustainable agriculture. And we've invested in programs that help to make good food more affordable for low-income families.
