The story begins in the early 1970s, when a young man named Michael Riconosciuto was recruited by the FBI to go undercover and infiltrate a group of organized crime figures. Riconosciuto was not a trained agent, and he had no experience in undercover work. But he was smart, resourceful, and determined to make a difference.

Riconosciuto quickly gained the trust of the organized crime figures, and he soon became a key member of their operation. He was privy to their plans, their secrets, and their illegal activities. And as he learned more about their operation, Riconosciuto became increasingly disgusted by their greed and corruption.

In 1976, Riconosciuto decided to come forward with what he knew. He went to the FBI and told them everything he had learned about the organized crime figures. His information led to the arrest of dozens of people, including several high-ranking members of the organization.
